Re Kolla Venkata Rao's Chatram at Kengeri

From

Dewan Bahadur, Mr. R. Raghunatha Rao

No. 657/2539 Dated 15th Nov. 1906.

Dewan Bahadur Mr. R Raghunatha Rao forwards a copy of the notice issued to him by the Amildar of Bangalore in which it is stated that the Chatram built by the late Mr. Kollam Venkata Rao at Kengeri is in very bad condition and that if it is not put in order within a month from the date of the receipt of the notice the village of Kanlapoor granted as inam for its maintenance would be attached

Dewan Bahadur Mr Raghunatha Rao feels insulted in the matter and states that he is compelled to renew his application to be relieved of the management of the charities of one whose valuable services to the State have been unknowledged. He states that his agent in Bangalore could have been addressed in the matter instead of himself being threatened with confiscation which is a prerogative of the Sovereign rarely exercised by him.

The records relating to the issue of the notice are not forthcoming.

Kollam Venkata Rao's Chattram in Siddi-cutta, Bangalore City, having been found in a very dilapidated cordition, the Govt in the General -- Department have, on the application of Dewan Bahadur Mr. Raghunatha Rao permitted the sale of the building and the construction of a new Chattram near Chamarajpet, on a site granted free for the purpose.

The Chattram at Kengeri appears to be another charity established by the late Mr. Kollam Venkata Rao. The building will no doubt be repaired when the new chattram in Bangalore is constructed. It was perhaps unnecessary to have sent the curt notice issued by the Amildar. The Deputy Commissioner may be requested to issue orders to the Amildar not to attach the village as stated in the notice, but to request Dewan Bahadur Raghunatha Rao to put the Kengeri Chattram in order

Orders in accordance with the above remarks were issued in Govt Pro: No. 324 11 – 2; dated 10th January 1907. The Deputy Commissioner has now submitted the Amildar's explanation as to why the court notice was issued to Dewan Bahadur R. Raghoonatha Rao, in which he merely states that he issued the notice in question only to have the charitable work in good order.

Sir,

I enclose copy of a notice received from the Amildar of Bangalore for the perusal of His Excellency the Dewan Sahib. I always thought that the loyal and loving subjects of the Maharaja of Mysore would be treated with a greater courtesy than those of His Majesty The Emperor's subjects in the British territories. This notice has made me think that I might be mistaken.

There is my agent at Bangalore who has been authorised to see to the proper maintenance of charities in Mysore. He might have been called upon to do the needful. I have often asked the Mysore Government to take charge of the charities with their endowments to prevent such treatment; but was assured that their management by me would not subject me to any inconvenience. To threaten with confiscation is a prerogative of the Sovereign rarely exercised by him - An amildar to assume that power and send me the notice aforesaid, compels me to renew my application to the Mysore Government to relieve me of the management of the Charities of one whose services to the State have been acknowledged by authorities in valuable expressions, and remain I have the vanity to believe, yet to be substantially acknowledged -

I have the honor to be

The late Mr. Kollam Venkat Rao's Chatram in Siddicutta, Bangalore City, having been found in a dilapidated condition, the Govt in the General Deptt have, on the application of Dewan Bahadur Mr. R.Ragoonatha Rao, permitted the sale of the building and construction of a new Chatram near Mavalli Tirappa opposite the City Institute, on a site granted free for the purpose.

2. The Chatram at Kengeri is another charity established by the late Mr. Kollam Venkat Rao. The building will no doubt be repaired when the new Chatram in Bangalore is constructed. It was unnecessary to have sent the court notice issued by the Amildar to which the Dewan Bahadur has taken objection. The explanation of the Amildar as to how he came to issue such a court notice should be obtained and submitted to Govt. The Deputy Commissioner is requested to issue orders to the Amildar not to attach the village as stated in the notice, but to ask the Dewan Bahadur's Agent in Bangalore to put the Chatram in order as soon as possible and also to see to its upkeep. The Dewan Bahadur's Agent at Bangalore, Mr. C.Parthunathe Rao, should be addressed in future in all such matters.
